

A modern bathroom interior featuring walls made of large, rectangular, light-colored cementitious stone tiles with a horizontal ribbed texture. A white, minimalist vanity unit is mounted on the wall, featuring a rectangular sink and a curved, polished brass faucet. A white towel hangs from a brass towel bar on the left side of the vanity. To the right of the sink, two amber-colored glass bottles of soap are placed on the vanity. Below the vanity, a built-in open shelf holds a stack of folded white towels. Above the vanity, a large, rectangular mirror with a thin black frame reflects a green plant on the left and a window with a white frame in the center. The floor is made of large, light-colored square tiles.
